NEGRO PRESS MINUTES

Secretary Boyd is Sending Out Book to Negro Editors

The proceedings of the National Negro Press Association during the past four years have been neatly printed by the National Baptist Publishing Co., Nashville, and Secretary Boyd is sending copies to members the poor quality of paper used prevents the cutoff those old journalistic war horses, Rev. R. H. Boyd and Chris J. Perry, from doing them full justice. The directory of journals published by the race shows following by States: Texas, 13; Tennessee, 12; Alabama, 10; Arkansas, 9; Pennsylvania and Kentucky, 8; South Carolina and Missouri, 7; Ohio, 5; Virginia and New York, 4; Wisconsin, 1; Kansas, 1; Oklahoma, Louisiana, Mississippi, California and Maryland, 3; Indiana, Florida and District of Columbia, 2; Illinois, Iowa, Oregon, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Washington, Michigan, Arizona, Nebraska and West Virginia 1 each. This includes papers whose editors are members of the Association and is not a true list of all Negro publications, as New York state shows up with four and there are more than four in New York City alone.

Dr. H. J. Watson has been ill for several days, but he is convalescing at this writing.

REPUBLICANS

Your Attention to a Little Story

The Gusher looks back about four years ago to the struggle between J. J. McGraw and Jim Harris, or for Mr. Wildman. A letter to the National Committee asking him to reimburse us for the money we had expended in his behalf, resulted in a flat refusal and so we had to work a little harder at that time to deny ourselves and our families, because we had been so foolish.

A few weeks ago the Gusher began to receive pretty stories pertaining to the Honorable J. J. McGraw, telling of his wonderful acts, and what a wonderful man he was, and incidentally mentioning the fact that he was to be a candidate for re-election at National Committee. The press agent at Ponca City was informed that they were wasting stamps, and to please not clog the mails with the McGraw dope.

We, you will imagine, are against Mr. McGraw for National Republican Committee. Well, you imagined just about right, and we are perfectly willing to let the gentleman understand the reason therefor, or partly therefor.

Our precinct caucus is to be held on February 8th, and we expect to go into the caucus with our slogan: "REMEMBER THE $300.00," and we expect to go to the county convention at Sapulpa with the same slogan and then on to Oklahoma City to the State Convention.

Fortune has rather favored both Mac Wildman and the Gusher in the last four years, and the debt of McGraw's has long been cancelled by us. If J. J. McGraw is so small that he would not pay his own campaign expenses, isn't he too damn small to be National Committeeman? The fight this year is between Jake Hamon and McGraw and we believe that Mr. Hamon will win in a walk, at least we hope so.

THE GUSHER...
By ELI L. ADMIRE.
Go to your Republican meeting at your regular polling place and vote for delegates to the County Convention who will be for Jake Hamon. Mr. Hamon will assist the Republicans of Creek County to carry the county next Fall.
